amendment along. The concept of treating equally and treating people the same is just one that's hard for me to believe that we can do. And I know that there are concerns that things may not stay the way they are, but quite frankly, our job is to decide what is fair and I think treating people equally is fair. I'd hope you would move the bill and advance it to E & R Engrossing.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. The question before you is the advancement of LR 20CA. All those in favor say aye. All those opposed nay. LR 20CA advances. Senator McKenzie announces that there are 85 fourth graders here from Aurora Elementary School in Aurora. Their teachers are Alayne Olson, Lynda Ochsner, Pam Emahizer, and Sandy Howland. They are all in the north balcony. Will you stand and be recognized please. Welcome to the Legislature. And Senator Bruning announces that Barton Sidles is a guest. He is under the south balcony. He is a former Lincolnite now living in Bucharest, Romania. Welcome to the Legislature, Mr. Sidles. Will you stand and be recognized. Mr. Clerk, any items?

CLERK: Madam President, yes. Thank you. Judiciary reports LB 90 to General File with committee amendments attached. Senator Robak has amendment to be printed to (LB) 227. Senators Wickersham and Jensen would like to add their names to (LB) 401 as cointroducers. (See pages 1437-39 of the Legislative Journal.) That's all that I have, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chair recognizes Senator Will.

SENATOR WILL: Thank you, Madam President. I move that we recess until 1:30.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The motion before you is the motion to recess. All those in favor say aye. All those opposed nay. We are in recess until 1:30.
